Fellow-Worker Tells About Cave-In Death

By JOE LESZCZYNSKI
(As told to Stanley Burke)

"Albert was down in the hole picking up planks. I stood at the top and he handed them up to me. We had been using them to prop up the sides of the ditch. Suddenly I saw the side of the ditch right above him start to fall in.

"I yelled at him to lookout but it was too late. It all came in at once, very fast.

"Albert was heading over picking up a plank—he was facing west. He just had time to look up and I think maybe he started to yell.

Happy Young Worker Joked About Easy Job

Albert Tomasiuk joked this morning he would have an easy day. Two hours later he was dead.

"We were working laying pipe but today we ran out so Albert was working picking up planks."

This was the story told by the dead man's partner, John Sowicki, as he stood grim faced watching the body of his friend uncovered by feverishly digging workers.

Tomasiuk was killed when he was buried today in a cave-in on a sewer project on the South Side.

"Albert thought it was going to be easy day," Sowicki said sadly. "Normally I work with him."

"Today they put me on another job. Otherwise I would have been down there with him."

"I was a good guy. Always laughing and cracking jokes."

MOM AND POP PLAY THE RACES

MOM'S STAKE $55.45
Brother, where did I get that tip on my quinnella of Rain Gauge and Bird on Wing at Saskatoon yesterday? Those two placehorses couldn't have finished much farther back and still have been on the track. What a day! But then one must expect those things when betting the favorites. Today I'm going back for more and taking a flyer on Wise Justice to place. Tomorrow is an effort to break this bad luck I'm taking a place bet on Allied Admiral. Should make a few pennies there.

POP'S STAKE $67.45

Well, mister, at the rate I'm betting those horses at Saskatoon I won't even have train fare to get to Regina for Monday's race meet there. My Devil's Eye was raving all over the place yesterday and finished away back in the sun. Today I'm taking Galahad for two books to win, and follow it Saturday with two to win on Double or Nothing.

Maynard Is Charged As Backer Of Strike

Charges have been made that Hon. Lucien Maynard, Alberta attorney-general, was behind a move to cause a strike of horsemen at the fair race meet.

Accusations were made by two Exhibition directors at a meeting Thursday night.

Those made by Carl Berg, vice-president of the Trades and Labor Congress, and Ald. S. Bower, that Mr. Maynard "implied serious trouble might result if increased prices were not paid race owners."

Previously during the race meet the horsemen presented a request for increased purses to Lee S. Williams, chairman of the racing committee and directors.

In questioning directors and Mr. Williams on the meeting with the horsemen, Mr. Berg said he heard "horsemen were threatening to strike on the advice and instigation of Mr. Maynard."

"If that is so, labor will want to go into this a little deeper," he said.

"A strike should be started in the proper way and not in the middle of a race meet. There are certain laws laid down for calling a strike, there has to be notice given and a cooling-off period," he added.

The attorney-general knows the law, said Berg, and he is not (Continued on Page 2) See "Maynard Said"

Decisive Struggle Underway In Korea
WASHINGTON, July 28.—(IUP)—A high army spokesman, basing his prediction on information from Gen. Douglas MacArthur, said today that "we're not going to be thrown off the peninsula" of Korea.

From AP and IUP Despatches
TOKYO, July 29.—(Saturday)—Communist North Korean invaders threw a savage armored attack at American divisions today in a decisive battle for the remaining U.S. foothold in South Korea.

The North Koreans were attacking in the rain along the whole 200-mile front with an estimated 90,000 men in nine divisions.

The heaviest blows were dealt against the greatly outnumbered American forces in the west-central sector northeast and southeast of Yongdong.

General MacArthur's summary issued early Saturday said "a savage fire fight" was in progress, with concentrated assaults on the U.S. 1st Cavalry Division area southwest of Yongdong.

The 1st Cavalry foot troopers lost some ground in the Hwanggan vicinity, 15 miles east of Yongdong, but were later reported holding firm against three enemy divisions.

Wedge Driven In Line
Twenty miles farther north, which took Namwon in southwest Korea. Thursday have captured Kurye, 15 miles south of Namwon.

A MacArthur spokesman said late Friday: "Enemy pressure now is reaching a maximum, and he must have a decision quickly."

This spokesman said the Communist supply problem has reached a point where the invaders are unable to continue a war of attrition. He called the next few days "extremely important" from the Communist point of view.

An American counter-attack was made late Friday in an attempt to ease pressure on the central sector. There were no immediate reports on how it fared.

The northeastern attack was launched and maintained under the heaviest concentration of artillery and mortar fire of the five-week war.

The Pyongyang radio broadcast also asserted North Korean forces were outside the road and railroad leading north to Taegu and Pusan, that the decisive engagement was being fought out.

American artillery opened up all along the line. It hurled tons of high explosives and anti-personnel fire at Communist concentrations.

In the far south, where American and North Korean operations have been confined to feeling out the Reds with exploring tank forces, Communist pushed 10 miles along main undefended roads.

It was on the west-central front.

that law to call a strike on a men's meeting, he said.

Ald. Bowser told the director he understood Mr. Maynard was chief spokesman for the horsemen at the meeting with the director.

Mr. Williams admitted when questioned by Mr. Berg the word "strike" had been used by Mr. Maynard but not before a full meeting of the directors.

Mr. Maynard was absent from the city Friday. He is the east after attending the funeral of W. L. MacKenzie King.

He is expected to return Monday. Directors refused to take action until after a meeting of the Western Fairs Association in Regina next week.

With increased play at the pari-mutuel horsemen felt they were being treated unfairly. H. G. Perry, president of the horsemen, said in presenting the request—Mr. Paul explained to the board.

OTHERS UP
Questioned as to what other cities on the circuit pay him, Mr. Paul Williams said Edmonton increased the prize money last January by $3,500. Regina, Saskatoon and Calgary, the other cities affected, also increased the prize.

Inventor Gets Patent For Horn-Blowing Car

George Federuk of 10236-97 street, may not have the finest car in Edmonton, but it is certainly the most theft-proof.

It's equipped with a burglar alarm which he has now received a patent for.

At the first sign of tampering the horn will begin to blow if you touch the door or hood the horn will blow. Put your foot on the starter and once again the horn will blow.

And don't think of crawling through a window, that's also hopeless.

There is still the problem of starting the car which will also sound the horn provided the proper ignition key is used.

When the proper key is used the alarm system connecting the horn, trunk and starter are turned off.

"The entire system is connected to the battery, and you can't reach that without lifting the hood, so there's absolutely no hope," said George Federuk.

On one occasion recently a thief had tried to enter the 1940 Ford car, but was frightened away by the constant sound of the blowing horn.

This aroused Federuk, sleeping at the time, but also proved that his invention was a success.

"The door alarm can prove very embarrassing. Sometimes I can't get in without sounding the horn," said the inventor.

Mr. Federuk began working on his burglar alarm system in 1941 and completed it in January of this year.

Rationing, Wage And Price Curbs Proposed By Baruch

WASHINGTON, July 28 (AP)—Considerable support built up in Congress today for a drive to put the United States under rationing and wage and price control.

The House of Representatives today approved the president's plan to take action to curb inflation by a vote of 20 to one, but only after Mr. Baruch's limited economic control bill.

The House of Representatives today approved the president's plan to take action to curb inflation by a vote of 20 to one, but only after Mr. Baruch's limited economic control bill.

Rep. John Kunkin (Rep. Pa.), author of the bill submitted today, announced immediately he will take the fight to the house floor when the bill comes up next Tuesday. His measure would roll back prices to their lowest level between July 24 and 28.

SUPPORT GAINED
Powerful support gathered behind the Baruch plan.

Chairman Carl Vinson (Dem. Ga.) of the house armed services committee said "I am for the Baruch plan. Otherwise there will be inflation, absolutely out of control."

The federal reserve board reported that department store sales in the country last week ran 46 per cent higher than in the same week last year. Never before has such a large increase been recorded.

Mr. Paul explained to the board that the sugar sales by primary distributors jumped 37 per cent in the first three weeks of July, compared with the same 1959 period.

NO CALL NOW
Tombala told calls for no price and wage controls, and for no rationing powers. The president says he doesn't need this authority now, but will ask for it if he feels it needed.

His request provides allocation and priorities authority to channel facilities and materials into military and essential uses, to limit increased productive capacity and a larger supply of materials and control investment, buying for other consumer and real estate credit and allow power to curb speculation in commodities.

Worker Crushed To Death Here

gang to service the 106th Street station. The accident occurred while the worker was working on the project which covers the five blocks west of 75 street between 75 and 80 streets.

This morning, the gang, except for Tomasiuk and Leszynski, was digging a second sewer ditch to block away. Foreman Edward Proder said Tomasiuk's duties this morning were to pick up loose pieces of plank from the bottom of the sewer and hand them to Leszynski above.

EARTH CRUMBLY
About 9:45 a.m. Tomasiuk was working in a section directly below the side of a private garage which extended within four feet of the ditch-head. Earth piled high against it had heaved in the hot sun all yesterday and this morning appeared loose and crumbly.

As the earth fell, Tomasiuk was facing west along the east-west trench towards Leszynski. He had just bent to pick up a plank which he held over his head as he started to run.

Some forty workers summoned to the scene from the nearby Kellogg Construction Co. project joined the sewer workers in digging for the body. Directed by Leszynski, they worked in shifts of six, digging the earth away from the mound covering Tomasiuk. A shovel struck the trench at an end receiving the shovel's dirt.

TRIED TO SAVE SELF
Above the ditch, others were busy saving planks into props to bolster the sheer bank and protect the workers below from further cave-ins. After an hour and ten minutes of labor, they reached Tomasiuk.

His right arm was exposed where he had thrown it over his head in a vain effort to protect himself. His face, framed by blonde curls, was exposed. Blood had flowed from his mouth.

Workers were unable to pull him from his upright grave and had to dig the man almost completely out before he could be placed on the City Ambulance stretcher and hoisted from the site.

CAME HERE AS DP
Finnish from the laborator squad stood by the ditch's ruler and told Dr. P. Schrage proboscis Tomasiuk dead of asphyxiation and a crushed chest.

The young Pole had come over as a DP from Germany last August. He lived in Edmonton with his uncle, Frank Tomasiuk, at 1798-51 street. He had been employed as a laborer by Proder Construction Co. for the past month.

Constables C. Palma, R. Maxwell, C. McIntosh and J. Reid assisted with forensic George Collins, Don McEwan and Norm Arnold. Jack Hays ambulance was also summoned.

$5,000 Asked In Damages By Farmer

A statement of claim for $5,000 damages was entered by Morrisville farmer Gerald Pelletier in Edmonton court house today against Town of Morrisville.

Pelletier is charging that the town improperly diverted its drainage water on to his farm "causing flooding" and that in 1960-1961 diverted sewage as well, "menacing health of plaintiff and his family."

The farmer is asking for an interim injunction restraining the town from diverting any more water or sewage on to his property or ordering the requirement the town to protect his farm "against further damages."

The statement claims that the town "repeatedly" refused to heed Pelletier's protests against flooding of his land.

Tires, Tubes Prices Up

A 10 to 12% per cent increase in the cost of mechanical and industrial rubber products was announced here today by officials of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company of Canada Ltd.

The steep rise, attributed to advances in costs of raw materials—natural rubber and carbon—will be effective July 25.

July 25 jump of five to 7 1/2 per cent in Goodyear tire and tube prices.

Hose, belting, and other industrial rubber goods are also affected by the latest price increase.

PANIC TROU

Panic buying in the U.S. and Canada because of the Korean crisis was described as responsible for the July 25 tire price rise—the third since December.

"They said replacement stock was on the way."

Vets Return To Training

WAINWRIGHT, Alta., July 28.—The men who fought Exercise Buffalo were, many of them, battle-hardened veterans before the grueling four-day maneuvers began this week.

Among the 350 Reserve Army men here, 70 per cent of the officers and about 45 per cent of the men had seen service in the Second World War. Lt.-Col. M. B. Dore, top umpire of the Exercise and chief training officer at Wainwright, estimated that 15 per cent of the officers and 40 per cent of the men were veterans of the Second World War.

Another 80 per cent of the officers and 40 per cent of the men were veterans of the Second World War. Lt.-Col. M. B. Dore, top umpire of the Exercise and chief training officer at Wainwright, estimated that 15 per cent of the officers and 40 per cent of the men were veterans of the Second World War.

All of the men who took part in this first "all arms concentration" of Canadian reserve units had had a minimum of two years military experience.

Grouped as an "Allied" brigade, veterans and recruits alike handled themselves creditably against the tough regular army PFCs and Lord Strathcona Horse units which opposed them in the exercise, officers said.

For many of them it was a privilege to manoeuvre as an army in the exercise, officers said.

Police Chief Makes Appeal For Men

Jennings Sees Need For Extra 35 Policemen And Two Cars

Edmonton needs 35 more police and 27 additional police cars, Chief Constable Reginald Jennings in a special report to the police department to Mayor Sidney Parsons.

The report of the police chief had been specifically requested some weeks ago by Mayor Parsons. The chief constable detailed personnel and equipment required as follows:

Two additional patrol work, 10 men; North Side patrol car, four men; South Side patrol car, four men; Traffic squad, four men; Criminal investigation, seven men; Morality squad, two men.

MORE MEN, CARS

Two additional prowler cars, one each for the North and South Side areas; 20 additional police cars located on the North Side and seven on the South Side.

Mayor Parsons said the additional personnel and equipment asked by Chief Jennings would probably cost the city between $40,000 and $50,000 a year.

Said Mayor Parsons: "This situation exists in the police department today because of the increase in the number of calls for service and the fact that the 40-hour week when it became operative two years ago."

"Chief Jennings states that even the hiring of the 35 additional men recommended will actually result in an increase of only 23 when the 40-hour week is taken into full consideration."

"The increase in the steadily increasing population and ever-expanding area that must be patrolled, plus the reduction in man hours worked."

The mayor said the report of Chief Jennings will be studied at the first of the week by city commissioners, who will likely meet on Monday with the chief constable.

"It will likely be necessary to ask city council for an additional appropriation for the police department if the recommendations are approved in whole or in part," Mayor Parsons pointed out.

Such an increase in police department costs have not been provided in the 1950 estimates.

Present effective strength of the police department is given as 138, estimates provided for a force of 163, the 19 additional men being used to provide for holidays, sick leave and absence of members.

Police department salaries alone in 1950 amount to $736,815 and the total appropriation for the department is $499,372.

Canada at present has committed the destroyer Cygnet, Athabaskan and Sioux to Gen. MacArthur's United Nations forces in Korea and a squadron of RCAP transport planes to transport work across the Pacific.

Reserve of iron ore in the United States of the kind now in use, plus additional usable ore, are estimated to total more than 77 billion tons.

Everybody Suspect

MIDDLEBORO, N.Y. (UPI)—Things got confused when police alerted residents to go on the look-out for "producers." Two men saw "suspicious looking" man two blocks up the street and followed him. The third man suspecting the pair, ran. He led them to city police headquarters.

Firemen quickly snuffed out fire which threatened the Edmonton Transit System car barn early this morning.

Transit company officials said the fire, at 6:45 a.m., was caused by over-heated radiator in the heating system of a street car.

The vestibule of the car burned for about five minutes before two pumps and a ladder truck from No. 5 and T stations quelled the blaze.

LANTERNS provide decorative motif for Edmonton's newest downtown restaurant, Lotus Gardens. George Mow, proprietor, arranges lanterns, individual for each table, as he prepares for opening.

Proprietor Well Versed In Restaurant Business

There's very little that George Mow, owner of the new Lotus Garden, doesn't know about the restaurant business.

Mr. Mow left his birthplace in Canton, China, in 1900, and after landing at Vancouver, B.C., went to Toronto. In the twenties he owned a large restaurant in Yonge street there jointly with his brother. When his brother died in 1928, Mr. Mow came to Edmonton and in 1929 opened a restaurant on 87 street.

After one year in business he sold out and returned to China, coming back in 1931.

SEVERAL CHANGES Then Mr. Mow really went to town as a restaurateur.

In 1932 he bought a cafe in Dewbury, 150 miles east of Edmonton. In 1936 he moved one to Edmonton, and in 1941 he opened a cafe at a few doors away from the Lotus. But, as the general Chinese said, "my business is like gambling. Sometimes I'm successful, sometimes, well, not so successful."

One by one he sold his businesses and now has only the one, "but it is one I'm proud to have."

The 52-year-old restaurant keeper is married, with four children. Jimmy, the eldest, aged 27, helps his father in the business.

Mr. Mow has made many friends in Edmonton and he wants to see them all on Saturday. So he is having open house from 12 noon to 2 p.m. and from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Wrens Take Over Truck

MIDDLEBORO, Ky.—(UP)—Lee F. Craigie, a farmer and truck operator, found a wren building her nest in the tool compartment of his truck.

He went on hauling. When he was away on trips the bird stayed home patiently awaiting his return. Then she would go to work on the nest again. Craigie inspected the nest and found the wren hovering over six little speckled eggs.

Fearing the long hauls and jolting roads would spoil the eggs, he parked the truck and bought another one to use while the mother wren hatched her brood. "I needed another truck anyway," Craigie said.

The best marked for feeder calves is from Sept. 28 to Oct. 15, according to West Virginia University's agricultural extension.

Ponoka Playground To Open August 3

Full-Time Supervisor Employed For Town, Service Club Project

PONOKA, July 28.—Preparations are underway for official opening Aug. 3 of Ponoka's new children's playground.

Plans include a parade to which all children from both town and country have been invited. Service clubs are assisting the playground association in preparing a program of races and sports and the band will be in attendance.

Formal opening will take place on the grounds at 2:00 p.m. and it is expected that Hon. Ivan Casey, Minister of Education will be present. Representatives of the Health and Recreation branch of the department have also been invited including J. H. Ross of Calgary and W. J. Hutton, supervisor of Health and Recreation.

FIRST PLAYGROUND

Ponoka is the first town of its size to have a playground of this capacity.

Facilities include a paddling and sprinker pool of reinforced concrete 50 by 24 feet, four kiddies' swings, four large swings, slides, teeters, and ocean waves.

A border of 50 trees has been set out and grass will be planted in the centre.

Washroom facilities are already installed and future plans include picnic shelters.

The town has budgeted for a full time playground supervisor and Miss Muriel Clapp, has been hired.

She is now taking the course in playground supervision at Red Deer.

$20,000 SPENT ON SITE

The project was originally undertaken by the town council which has spent about $20,000 in preparing the site.

Service clubs and organizations have donated equipment.

An Association was formed this spring to assist Council in the operation. W. J. Young heads the Association and Council A. J. Crandall, chairman of the committee for Recreation and Community Services represents the town.

Murdock Visits Here

Once known as hockey's "Iron Man" when he played 600 consecutive games with the New York Rangers of the National League, Murdock Murdock was a city visitor yesterday.

Murdock, who married an Edmonton girl, Marie Heinrich, is well known in these parts. Like when he managed the New York Rangers of the National League. In the early years of Renfrew Park.

These times "Iron Man" Murdock is a resident of New Haven, Conn., home of Yale University. Murdock coaches the Yale hockey team and also takes a hand in the intra-mural athletic program at the college.

A graduate of University of Manitoba, Murdock was an outstanding hockey player while at college.

He turned professional with the old Winnipeg Maroons, later turned up with New York Rangers, where he remained for several years.

A dozen seasons, he was a teammate of the famous Conks, Bill and Ben, Frank Boucher, "Ching" Johnson and more.

Murdock plans to stay in the Edmonton area for some time, visiting with friends and renewing acquaintances.

CRK Derails Edson For 18th Straight Win

Manager Lou Hiatt's CNR ballhoosers still haven't run into that loud switch this season—at least not in junior competition.

At Renfrew Park last night the railroaders got up another full head of steam to turn back a battling Edson squad 12-3 in the opener of a three-game series in northern Alberta played in the field.

Balance of the series will be played at Edson at the weekend. Wildness on the part of the winners, pitcher-Johnny Boychuk—played a large part in the down-fall of the visiting side.

During the three and two-thirds innings he worked, Boychuk walked just about everybody in the ball park except head groundskeeper Bob Chapman.

Officially boychuk was charged with issuing free tickets before he retired to right field in the eighth. But he had a hunch by that time CNR had fashioned a 6-2 lead and were well on the way to their 18th straight triumph against nary a setback.

Letty Bob Bacon, first in the series, he hit for a home run in the first inning, when Edson scored two runs. After a third and second prevented the sturdy southpaw from getting out of the inning without a hit.

Visitors added their first count in the fifth, Boychuk leading off by doubling, then moving around on an infield out and a steal of home.

Third baseman Jim Johnson and hurler Bacon paced the hot-box gang at the plate, each with two hits. Incidentally, Bacon racked up an even dozen strikeouts.

Catcher Ed Tanner who was with Dodgers of the Big Four league earlier in the season, and later with CNR and Lacrosse, of the Central Alberta circuit, popped up again last night in the uniform of the railroaders.

Upwards of 400 fans took in the contest. Third baseman Bill Buck spoke for the whole Edson team after it was over, when he said, enthusiastically: "Sure, wish we could play on a diamond like this every night."

"Does the ball ever hop just right? Boy, oh boy!"

BOX SCORE
 Edson: 100 runs, 10 hits, 1 error.
 CNR: 100 runs, 10 hits, 1 error.

Purity's 'Gorboos' Pacing Big Four

Speedy Glen Gorboos, a Vulcan product who played in organized baseball last season as a Brooklyn Dodger farmhand, is pacing the hitters of the Big Four Baseball league, according to latest averages released yesterday.

The Calgary Purty centre-fielder, a healthy 386 mark to give him a thin-as-a-rice-bun one-point edge on big Jim Ryan, manager of Edmonton Dodgers.

Gorboos has clicked for 81 hits in 210 trips to the plate. The Ryan average is a result of 67 safe whacks in 176 chances.

Edson, is tops in the vital runs batted in column, with 14, Edmonton shortstop Bill Lillis holds down the third slot with a 379 mark.

Ottawa Ready for Defence Budget

Millions More Designated As Canada Defence Speeded

By Dick Brown
Special to the Bulletin

OTTAWA, July 28.—(BUP)—Canada stepped into a worldwide arms race today in the role of a major supplier for Atlantic Pact nations.

A usually well-informed government official said former defence spending estimates had been increased as a result of the Korean war and new ones were being prepared for cabinet approval.

The amount of money the defence department had in mind was not definitely known. But some observers speculated it would be well above the $200,000,000 which defence Minister Brooke Claxton said before the Korean invasion Canada could spend for Atlantic Pact equipment.

Claxton said in parliament that most of that amount would be spent on equipment for the other treaty signatories.

MILLIONS MORE
country's own spending in defence last night, Claxton said that only pre-war levels would cost "millions more" than the record $425,000,000 authorized before summer holidays.

He added that "the exact amount has not yet been worked out."

It was understood meanwhile, that treaty nations in Western Europe were being urged by the United States to drop their rearmament plans under the Marshall plan in favor of rearmament.

A proposal whereby the United States would divert recovery funds to make up for dollar shortages caused by arms spending also was under consideration, usually well-informed sources reported.

END OF SPENDING
The end of business-as-usual spending in Europe would mean increased demands on Canadian munitions and raw material production which was written into the Atlantic treaty.

The Atlantic defence supply problem was not directly related to the current Korean situation.

A defence spokesman said it was looked on more as a "measure of insurance in case it's needed."

An indication that the Korean war was being fought on his line, however, from reports that senior cabinet members who accompanied former Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King's body to Toronto yesterday had spent a good part of their time in a luncheon session aboard the train.

When they returned they made it clear that Canada would not join in a plan to ally with Japan, Australia and New Zealand for a commonwealth fighting force in the Korean area.

Trailer Wives Like Roaming with Family

MONTREAL, Man., July 28.—(CP)—Some 25 housewives here wash the outside of their homes as regularly as they do the kitchen floor.

They are the wives of American oil men working on the pipeline which will carry Alberta oil to the Lakes. They live in luxury-fitted trailers.

They will stay in Montreal as long as their husbands are at work nearby. Then they will move on as the pipeline progresses. A few months from now they may be with another pipeline job, perhaps in Venezuela or Mexico.

Every morning in this temporary community, the "lady of the house" can be seen in T-shirt and jeans, attacking the exterior of her trailer with scrub brush.

The trailers are self-contained, finished in blond wood and containing bedrooms, shower, kitchenette and living rooms. Most have electric refrigerators and ultra-modern stoves.

Priority Claimed By Chilean Women

Chilean women claim priority over many other nations in achieving rights still denied to females in many lands. In 1871 Chile became first Latin-American country to admit women to universities of par with men.

In 1946 it appointed a woman Minister to Netherlands, thus becoming fifth nation to give such post to a woman. It is women judges in all labor and criminal courts, and entire field of social service is in charge of women.

New Furniture Serves Purpose

Modern furniture is not just thought up by manufacturers with ideas of something new and different for the market.

Most modern homes have a space problem and the accent on furniture and room arrangement is an attempt to make a little go a long way.

In one model room open book case shelves are set on top of a chest to divide a living and dining area.

There are even modern table tops that almost match the durability of grandmother's marble-topped table. One new plastic fabric that resembles straw is used as a table top. It's alcohol proof and soot resistant.

Even black patent leather is being put on the top of tables and chairs. Plastic patent is durable and won't be damaged when wet glasses are placed on it.

FINANCE BRIEFS

Wholesale Bread Price Down Soon

OTTAWA.—(CP)—The whole-sale price of bread flour may drop slightly next month, but that won't mean a cheaper loaf for the Canadian housewife.

A baking industry spokesman said today that costs of other ingredients such as lard and sugar have risen sharply within the last few weeks but bakers can't consider price reductions.

The average price of bread across the country now is about 13 cents a loaf. The baker now pays about 110 for a 200-pound barrel of bread flour, which makes about 100 loaves. One miller in Montreal said the cost may be about 25 cents a barrel.

That would mean a reduction of one-eighth of a cent in the cost of producing a loaf of bread—too little to change prices.

The reduction—if it comes—will be from the fact that the new price for western flour in the crop year beginning Aug. 1 will be slightly lower for the miller than it was in the crop year which ended July 31.

MONTREAL.—Operating revenues for the Canadian National Railway for the month of June, 1950, amounted to $47,770,000. Operating expenses were $42,770,000 and the net operating revenue was $5,000,000. In June, 1949, revenues were $46,000,000 and expenses were $41,000,000 and the net operating revenue was $5,000,000.

These figures are the operating revenues and expenses only and they do not include taxes, equipment rentals, fixed charges, etc.

LONDON.—(Reuters)—Britain has been successful in securing a number of other countries to increase exports of British-made equipment above present figures.

Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade, told the House of Commons tonight.

The government had decided, nonetheless, to make this year's revenue estimates for 1950-51, which Conservatives had expressed fears that British newspapers might not be able to maintain their present size of six pages.

Clement Davies, Liberal leader, said the breaking of Canadian oil contracts had done Britain considerable harm. Long-term planning is needed, he said.

VANCOUVER.—(CP)—A net profit of $4,965,775 for the six months ending June 30 was reported in the mid-year report of the Imperial Oil Company, Ltd., which also reflected a growing demand for newplants.

Earnings per share rose to $3.02 and profits to $26.80. A net profit of $15,332,327 was shown for the corresponding period of 1949.

Production totalled 14,627 tons compared to 14,127 tons of 1949. Unbleached paper pulp also sold well, the report said.

LONDON.—(Reuters)—Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade, said it is government policy to agree to a reduction in exclusive Commonwealth tariffs or preferences only in return for equal concessions.

In reply to another question, Wilson said it is aware that Imperial preferences were an instrument in negotiating intra-Commonwealth trade.

"But I think the events of the last two or three years have shown," he said, "that long-term contracts are essential."

Religious Group Bares North Korean Atrocities

VATICAN CITY, July 28.—(BUP)—Reports of murder, plunder and atrocities following the occupation of Seoul by North Korean troops have been published by the Sacred Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith.

One report told how women were used between two troops, which then were driven in opposite directions. Their bodies were then to be buried.

The Congregation, which directs Catholic missionary activities abroad and receives regular reports from the mission workers, issued its official statement through its own news agency, Fides.

"Upon entering Seoul," it said, "the Communists released all the political prisoners in the city's jails and installed them in public offices. The result, said the report, was 'full satisfaction of the former convicts'—namely, hatred, rancour and hatred."

"As a result of the operation of the prison doors," it continued, "the former convicts denounced their enemies and the most heinous atrocities were committed."

The Congregation said that the occupation forces themselves had special black lists which had been prepared in advance and all the people named in the lists were immediately executed.

"The Communists rapidly attacked the houses and families of Southern army officers, members of the police forces and of public officials."

"Women were tied by their legs and the upper parts of their bodies by two jeeps which were then driven in opposite directions, tearing the victims' bodies apart."

"It is still impossible to give the exact number of people massacred," it is feared that there were more than 1,000.

The armed forces' standards are high. At the moment there is no indication they will be lowered, as was done during the last war.

To increase the percentage of volunteers who can be enlisted.

Five-Year-Plan For Industry Said Exceeded

LONDON, July 28.—(CP)—Russia said yesterday it had exceeded its industrial five-year plan for the second quarter of 1950 although there were failures in some lines.

Moscow radio in a broadcast heard here said some output of the industry was fulfilled by 100 per cent.

It said that in all, for the second three months of this year the gross output was 21 per cent more than for same period last year. The radio gave no total production figures, only percentages.

Manpower Lack In Korea Prevents Defence In Depth

By Harry Ferguson
United Press Foreign News Editor

Today and tomorrow are the days of decision in Korea. The biggest battle of the war is under way. It may go on for another 24 hours or longer, and while it's over the American command will know whether they can hang on or whether they had better start assembling shipping for a Dunkirk evacuation of the port of Pusan.

"The enemy seeks a decisive" attack, the American command says.

Speakers at Gen. Douglas MacArthur headquarters said "if we will do anything at all at this time for a breakthrough."

Heavy despatches from the front indicate the American position is precarious. What the American command in Korea are trying to do is to keep their position from being changed from critical to desperate, point, the Communists can push us out of a beachhead cut through the breast, get to behind, cutting off roughly one-third of our troops and start isolating territory in the Korean peninsula paralyse small units. Then there our forces are cut off from the rear.

Not enough troops

One of our difficulties in this war is that we have never been able to organize what soldiers call "defensive" positions. We haven't had enough troops. Once the Communists joined through our front

Opposition Grows Stronger To Government Of India

By R. C. Arun

BOMBAY, India, July 28.—(Reuters)—The Indian National Congress, India's premier political party, will face with the most crucial decisions in its 56-year career when it meets in annual session Sept. 12.

The party which led the country to freedom in 1947 and has been ruling with absolute majority in 18 states is today in an uneasy position, with the first general elections just eight months away.

Turn by internal dissension and weakened by a "wave of propaganda" by opposing groups, the Congress is not confident about the verdict of the people at the polls next year.

The Socialists, who once formed the left-wing of the Congress, are today its most bitter opponents. Socialists have declared that the Congress would not run the elections "honestly." Liberal groups contend the security and "preventive detention" laws are "aimed at crushing all opposition to the government."

The security laws were promulgated in 1948 after a long-winded Communist uprising against the government.

The security laws and "moral reforms" have no doubt cost the Congress popularity, but the party is facing a serious threat of disruption, with dissident groups in the Congress being driven out.

At least in two states—the Punjab and the United Provinces—the "rebels" have formed parallel organizations. In several others, they have challenged the authority of the party chiefs, and charged the ministry with corruption and nepotism.

Against this background of dissension and discontent the Congress will meet on the shores of sacred Godavari.

STOCK-RAISING

More than 3,000 delegates will flock to the panama "National Parliament" where the one-time "National Parliament" will take stock of its "gains and losses."

The most urgent issue will be the "party strategy" for the coming elections. However, problems with reorganization to regain the fast-fading party influence and reorganization of its policies in connection with the situation at home and abroad will involve much.
